

Safety Sami Says: Always wear a bike helmet!

Make sure your bike helmet fits by shaking your head up and down and from side to side. If your helmet moves easily, your parents can add the padding provided with the helmet to make a tighter fit. If the helmet still moves after that, the helmet is not the right size for you and your parents need to replace it.